

Worship Leader: "A young carpenter was hired by his elderly father, who had suddenly become wealthy, to build a new house. After providing enough money to buy the best materials, the old man went away on a long trip. The son was soon to be married and saw a chance to get some extra money for himself. Instead of doing an honest job, he erected an attractive house in a cheap way by using second-hand lumber and putting a poor grade of cement in the foundation. He was sure that his father would not know the difference. When the old man returned, he said, 'The house is your wedding present. I wanted you to build it to suit yourself, since you are to live in it.'

We are all sons of God, who loves us so much that He wants us to have beautiful lives, and gives us the finest materials out of which to build them. He leaves us free to use cheap substitutes if we prefer, but the house is ours, and we must live in it now and through eternity."

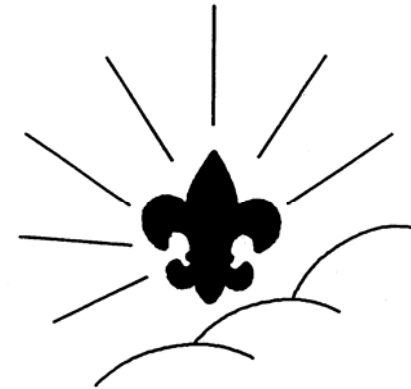

Everyone: "Dear God, the world is filled with dishonesty and falsehood, but save me from becoming like the world. Place Thy Spirit within me, and give me the courage to be like Jesus, in whose name I pray. Amen."

"And He will raise you up on eagles wings, bear you up on the breath of dawn, make you shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of His hand."

Psalm 91

Troop 626
Troop Work Weekend
January 30, 2000

Trustworthy

Worship Leader: "A Scout is Trustworthy."

Everyone: "A Scout tells the truth. He keeps his promises. Honesty is a part of his code of conduct. People can always depend on him."

Worship Leader: "When facing deceit and dishonesty,"

Everyone: "Let us be Trustworthy."

Worship Leader: "A true and worthy person recognizes his obligations and does them without being watched or compelled."

Troop 626, January 30, 2000

Trust and Obey

When we walk with the Lord in the light of His word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will, He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.
Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies,
But His smile quickly drives it away;
Not a doubt nor a fear, not a sigh nor a tear
Can abide while we trust and obey
Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

Psalm 101:7

Worship Leader: "He who practices deceit shall not dwell within my house; he who speaks falsehood shall not maintain his position before me."

Everyone: "Father, help us to keep honest in all our dealings with others."

III John 4

Worship Leader: "No greater joy can I have than this, to hear that my children follow the truth."

Everyone: "Dear God, the world is filled with dishonesty and falsehood. Save us from becoming like the world."

Troop 626, January 30, 2000

Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of
wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword,
His truth is marching on.

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on!

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat,
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgement
seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer Him, be jubilant my feet!
His truth is marching on!

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on!

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His being that transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy let us live to make men free!

His truth is marching on!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on!